

THIRTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME - Mass Readings

Entrance Antiphon

All peoples, clap your hands. Cry to God with shouts of joy!

First Reading

Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24

Death was not God's doing, he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living. To be - for this he created all; the world's created things have health in them, in them no fatal poison can be found, and Hades holds no power on earth; for virtue is undying. Yet God did make man imperishable, he made him in the image of his own nature; it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world, as those who are his partners will discover.

The Word of the Lord

Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm

R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me and have not let my enemies rejoice over me. O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. R.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him, give thanks to his holy name. His anger lasts but a moment: his favour through life. At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. R.

The Lord listened and had pity. The Lord came to my help. For me you have changed my mourning into dancing, O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. R.

Second Reading

2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

You always have the most of everything - of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection - so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia! Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death and brought us life through his gospel. Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 5: 21-24, 35-43

Now there was a woman who had suffered from a haemorrhage for twelve years; after long and painful treatment under various doctors, she had spent all she had without being any the better for it, in fact, she was getting worse. She had heard about Jesus, and she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his cloak. 'If I can touch his clothes,' she had told herself 'I will be well again.' And the source of the bleeding dried up instantly, and she felt in herself that she was cured of her complaint. Immediately aware that power had gone out of him, Jesus turned around in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' His disciples said to him, 'You see how the crowd is pressing round you and yet you say, "Who touched me?"' But he continued to look all round to see who had done it. Then the woman came forward, frightened and trembling because she knew what had happened to her, and she fell at his feet and told him the whole truth. 'My daughter,' he said 'your faith has restored you to health; go in peace and be free from your complaint.' While he was still speaking

Praise to Lord Jesus Christ

Communion Antiphon

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all within me, his holy name.

A BIG effort by and congratulations to Deidre Lyra, the Fundraising Committee, our wonderful Master Chefs, Dedicated Volunteers and Generous Parishioners for their love and support leading to a Mega Mind-blowing result of $7,258.55 raised from our International Food Sales Festival which will go towards our new ParishCentre. A truly successful fundraising fort by all! THANK YOU .

MATTHEW GIBNEY CATHOLIC PRIMARY SCHOOL

The school was visited by Mr Wayne Bull, Executive Director of Catholic Education WA, last Tuesday. Wayne came to thank Mrs Hussey for her years of service to Catholic Education and to wish her a happy retirement. As the term draws to a close, the school is recognising Mrs Hussey with a farewell celebration for parents on Friday 21st June and then the farewell Liturgy on Thursday 27th June at 9am.

Mr Clinton Payne, our new Principal visited the school on Thursday, to meet the staff and children.

For further information contact Matthew Gibney Primary School, 30 Munday Rd, High Wycombe on 62168400 or by email admin@gibney.wa.edu.au.
